

Q&A regarding Frontier Airlines Reciprocal Cabin Seat Travel Agreement

1. What is a Reciprocal Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

It is an arrangement allowing Frontier Airlines and Other Airline Flight Attendants to travel in what would be empty cabin seats free of charge on each other's aircraft.

2. How do I sign up for a seat on a flight?

Eligible travelers may call 877-302-8804 and advise the agent that you are traveling non-revenue under a Jumpseat Agreement, or you may see a gate or ticket agent at any one of our stations to list in person on the day of departure. If you list ahead, be sure to advise the gate agent that you are listed.

3. Who is eligible to travel under the Reciprocal Cabin Seat Agreement?

Only active Flight Attendants are qualified to travel under this Agreement (no trainee, retired, or inactive Flight Attendant).

4. Can I utilize the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement while on leave?

No, you must be an active, qualified flight attendant to travel.

5. What is my boarding priority when traveling on the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

Cabin seat travelers are boarded on a first-come, first-served basis after all other revenue passengers have boarded and non-revenue pass travelers have been cleared. At Frontier, Other Airline Flight Attendants will be at a SA9 priority.

6. Do I have to wear my badge when traveling under this Agreement?

No. You would have to have your valid company ID with a "CREW" designator in order to travel but you would not necessarily display it on your outer wear once onboard the aircraft.

7. Is there a dress code when utilizing the Reciprocal Cabin Seat Agreement?

Yes, business casual attire is required when utilizing the Agreement. You must not wear flip flops, denim, t-shirts, etc., while traveling under this agreement. Full uniform compliance will also be allowed for travel.

8. What are the procedures an Other Airline Airways Flight Attendant should follow to travel utilizing the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

Flight Attendants should check-in with the Frontier gate agent no sooner than four hours prior and no later than 20 minutes prior to scheduled departure.

Present proper airline I.D. that clearly indicates the individual as "CREW" and must include an expiration date.

Compliance with approved carry-on baggage program applies.

After all revenue customers are processed, standby processing begins. Please wait for gate agent to call your name and issue a boarding pass to board the aircraft.

Conduct while onboard must reflect a professional business-like attitude in accordance with all standard passenger regulations (seat belts, carry-on bags, safety information signs, etc.).

9. May I consume alcoholic beverages when utilizing the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

No.

10. Are there blackout dates that apply to the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

No. However, Frontier reserves the right to impose an embargo prohibiting travel on certain dates or routings at any time.

11. Does this Cabin Seat Travel Agreement cover all flights system wide?

Yes, all Frontier flights system wide, with the exception of charter flights.

12. Is an Other Airline Flight Attendant required to pay international taxes for non-domestic flights?

Yes. International flights to Mexico and Canada require international taxes to be paid at the ticket counter, the customer service counter on the concourse or at the Frontier Pass Bureau.

13. Are "lap" children eligible to travel under this Agreement?

No, infants, or "lap" children may not be accommodated under this Agreement.

14. Are cabin pets allowed to travel under this Agreement?

No, cabin pets cannot travel under this Agreement.
